LETTER FROM WASHINGTON CITY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 15, 1871.

POLITICAL AND CONGRESSIONAL.

I have been too busy preparing legal business for the last two weeks to write for an Oregon news paper, but politics are too lively longer delay. The 41st Congress closed with stormy personalities in high places, and the 42d has opened lively. The San Domingo Commissioners are quietly investigating the resources of the island. The correspondents of the newspapers who accompanied the Commissioners send home flattering accounts of the fertility and beauty of the island. This annoys the opponents of annexation in Congress. Senator Sumner has been deposed from the Chairmanship of the Committee on Foreign Relations, and Simon Cameron fills his place with dignity and great ability. This blasts the hopes of Sumner's being the Republican nominee for President in 1862. It is said his radical friends were so mad about it in New Hampshire that they stayed at home yesterday from the election and gave the Democrats the Congressmen and the Governor of that State.

The 1st day of the session the House adopted a joint resolution to adjourn yesterday. The Senate has refused and both Houses proceeded to business. The real secret of these squalls are:

Shall the Ku-Klux rule the South?

Shall we get San Domingo?

Shall Grant or Sumner be the Republican nominee for President in 1872?

Then shall we elect a Republican or Democrat?

Shall we get British Oregon or gold in payment for the Alabama claims and similar spoliations, and settle the fishery question amicably, or shall we have war with England and take at enormous cost of life and property ample satisfaction for the Alabama claims and the whole of British America, and lose San Domingo?

Some of these are grave and important questions, and all of them govern and control many votes in side issues in both Houses of Congress, that no one, except the initiated have any idea of the results. About a dozen Republicans of the House voted for adjournment without doing any business. Some did it to defeat any legislation against the Ku-Klux; others to prevent annexation. Some to give Sumner a chance to retrace his steps and to get a chance to make friends with the President and Secretary of State. All the Democrats voted solidly for it, so they could stand a better chance to elect a Democrat in 1872. They oppose the annexation for the same reason.

THE KU-KLUX.

The Ku-Klux are a political organization, sworn in secret to do the bidding of the majority of the camp, even to taking the life of the radicals or loyalists, who favor equal suffrage, and to protect any of the order against the judgments of the courts with their own lives and perjury in the courts of justice. Three Republican caucuses have been held to see what Congress can do to protect the lives and property of loyal men South against this infamous, political, Democratic organization. I say Democratic, because all Ku-Klux men are Democrats, but I do not mean that all Democrats belong to the Ku-Klux. They sympathize with them, however, as they did with the late rebellion.

Something, if possible, ought to be done by law to sweep this clan from the face of the earth. In my judgment Congress will not adjourn until they try to pass some law to remedy this monstrous evil.

SUMNER

with his new Democratic allies continues to growl and tries hard to embarrass the Administration and to defeat the annexation of St. Domingo. He has carried his opposition to the annexation of St. Domingo so far as to try yesterday to introduce in the Senate of the United States a petition of the rebel refugees of St. Domingo, protesting against annexation. To his great chagrin and mortification it was ruled out of order. Poor, impracticable Sumner; he wants to be President so bad that he fights the Administration with more zeal than brains,—refuses to speak to the President and the Secretary of State. He votes with the Democrats. They applaud him. He acts with them; yet he refuses to be called a Democrat. He is exemplifying the old adage, that whom the Gods wish to destroy they first make mad. Mr. Sumner is so mad because Grant is popular with the people that, like Chase, he is destroying his past political fame trying to be President. The true Republicans don't want him President, and the Democrats are only praising him to get him, like the adder, to sting the party who warmed him into life. They may take Chase for success, in preference to Hoffman, but scarcely Charles Sumner. Either will be badly beaten before the people in 1872, by the hero of Shiloh.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Both Houses are pushing business. In the House 181 bills and 29 joint resolutions have been introduced; in the Senate 201 bills and 1 joint resolution, making four hundred and twelve propositions for laws, in ten days.

The House has passed a resolution declaring the expenses of the Government ought to be reduced to two hundred and fifty million dollars.

The House yesterday, by very large majorities, passed joint resolutions repealing the duties on coal, salt, tea and coffee.

THE HIGH COMMISSION.

The High Commissioners of England and the United States meet daily. Our cause is in good hands. The true friends of the administration hope all of our difficulties with England will be soon amicably settled without war.

A large majority of our citizens want British America and San Domingo. We can well afford to pay the Alabama claims if England will give us Columbia and Vancouver's Island, and stop the depredations of Canada on our whaling and fishery vessels on the Atlantic. If England is unwilling to cede the territory, let her pay for the speculations of vessels which were built in England with her knowledge, and then we will have no cause for war. Let us get what we can honorably and peaceably from England. This will secure peace abroad, and in some way we will destroy the murderous bands of the Ku-Klux which now infest the South. Grant will get the Republican nomination for President from the people without the aid of ambitious politicians, like Chase and Sumner, and he will again be triumphantly elected President. Then the Ku-Klux will be afraid to show their faces. Then we will have peace at home and peace with all nations. And whether we annex San Domingo or not, we will reduce taxation, make not only coal, salt, tea and coffee free, but reduce others, and add to the free list, and still continue to reduce the national debt.

NEW BILLS FOR OREGON.

Senator Corbett has introduced in the Senate the following bills:

A bill granting lands to aid the Oregon Branch Pacific Railroad Company to build a railroad from the Humboldt river to Rogue river valley, the bill of last session to survey and segregate the swamp lands, and a bill to incorporate the Japan Steam Navigation Company, which also failed to become a law last session. B. F. D.

Maine offers to every able-bodied male Swede a farm of one hundred acres, and exemption from taxation until 1876.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN DATES TO MARCH 31.

EUROPE.

Dispatches from London.

LONDON, March 30.—The Queen of Sweden is dead.

In the House of Commons to-night, a petition was presented, bearing the signatures of a quarter of a million of persons asking the repeal of the contagious disease act.

Simeon gave notice of a motion questioning the right of the House of Lords to negative the bill which had been passed by the House of Commons and expressing the opinion that such action on the part of the House of Lords was inconsistent with the representation of the people.

Sir Charles W. Dilke, member from Chelsea, denounced the action of Russell in repudiating the treaty of Paris of 1856, and also the tone of the dispatch of Prince Gortschakoff, announcing the abandonment of the treaty. He blamed Earl Granville for consenting to reopen the Euxine question in the London Conference and asserted that owing to collusion between Russia and Prussia the result of the conference was inevitable.

BERLIN, March 30.—Schloeger has been transferred to Mexico.

Affairs at Paris.

PARIS, March 30.—Copies of the Figaro on sale at all the newspaper stands, were seized to-day by the National Committee. The office of the paper is occupied and publication forbidden.

The Cri du Peuple and Nouvelle Republique to-day attacked the Assembly in violent terms. There are, however, no signs of attack on Versailles.

The Cri du Peuple and Francais both make the announcement that Gen. Lallallawood has completely suppressed the rising in Algeria.

It is expected the peace conference at Brussels will continue its session a long time.

At 1 o'clock to-day the sub-Central Committee passed the sentence of death upon Wilfred Ganville for being engaged in an obstinate and guilty attempt against the action of the Committee.

Gen. Duval was at the same time authorized to search out and arrest all its enemies.

An Executive Committee has been appointed by the Sub-Central Committee, composed of Teidon, Endvaillent LeFrancois, and Duval, and will have charge of affairs for a month.

PARIS, March 30.—The Communists still disagree.

In the Versailles Assembly Thiers announced that the withdrawal of the Germans had been momentarily suspended. The Parisians, however, are responsible. Prisoners returning had informed the Prussians of the hostile acts not of the Government but of the Communists.

From Marseilles.

MARSEILLES, March 30.—In Commune, Mailurie and Decroix have resigned. Cremieux, President of the Provisional Committee has been arrested. Others have fled. Republican secret committees are disbanding. Red flags have vanished.

In Paris there are no courts. The Judges have fled.

Dispatches from Versailles.

VERSAILLES, March 30.—The Assembly passed a bill for the convocation of the Council General.

Thiers said by convention more Germans are entering Paris. The French are incensed proportionately.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Income Returns.

WASHINGTON, March 30.—Commissioner Pleasonton decides that persons whose gross incomes during the year 1870, estimated in United States currency, did not exceed $2,000, are not required to make any income returns.

Political Matters.

The Republican Convention for the District of Columbia organized to-day with Frederick Douglass as President, and his two sons among the delegates. On an informal ballot Gen. N. P. Chipman, now Secretary under the act providing for a government for the District of Columbia, received forty-four votes as the candidate for Congress; Douglass, 27; scattering, 37.

The San Domingo report is still in the hands of the Commissioners and will not be sent into Congress to-day and perhaps not to-morrow. It is said it will make about four columns.

The President transmitted to-day to the Senate for ratification, a treaty on Commerce and navigation between the United States and Italy.

The House, on motion of Kendall, took up and passed the Senate bill authorizing or requesting the President of the United States to appoint a board of three Commissioners, two of whom shall be officers and engineers of the army, and one a mining or civil engineer, to examine and report upon the Sutro Tunnel in the State of Nevada.

CALIFORNIA.

An Insane Murderess.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 30.—The testimony for the prosecution of Fair-Crittenden murder case was concluded this afternoon.

J. Cook addressed the jury, stating what he expected to prove, and what line the defense would assume. He said Mrs. Fair would testify that she had no recollection of the shooting, nor even of having gone on board the Oakland boat; that he would show that her intimacy had existed ten months before she discovered that he was a married man; that then and frequently subsequently he promised to go to Indiana, get a divorce and then marry her, but put her off from time to time with the statement that he wanted to make some money first, and not leave his wife penniless and unprovided for. He would then prove that she offered to make his wife a present of all the money she had in the bank to obviate the delay, and furthermore, that she was subject to regular recurring attacks of insanity at intervals of a month, which rendered her morally irresponsible for the time being. Testimony for the defense commences to-morrow.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Wendell Phillips has issued a manifesto against Grant. It is almost as bitter as some of his tirades against Lincoln in 1863, when he pronounced the Great President the "slave-hound of Illinois."

The Democrats in Missouri are very unhappy over the surrender, as they call it, of the surrender of the Liberal Republicans to the Radical Republicans. They know that the reunion means defeat to them.

The Legislative Commission at Harrisburg, charged with the bills establishing commissioners for the government of the various departments of Philadelphia have agreed to report them negatively. This step kills the bills, as it requires a two thirds vote to bring them up in the House, which is hardly possible, though the powerful ring formed to effect the passage of the bills will make the attempt.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says that the influence exerted in New York by a few wealthy men, large bond holders, in the Democratic organization, has been most disastrous in the Western States, and has cost the party thousands of votes. And it insists that the party must have in 1872, a thorough Democratic platform, at least as strong and radical as that of 1868, and candidates who can be relied upon to carry it out if they are elected. With anything short of this, in either respect, it insists that the party is defeated in advance.

Arkansas politics are incomprehensible. There is no more dependence to be placed upon them than upon that "heathen Chinee" who has become so trite an exponent of ways that are dark. Gov. Clayton, who was under the ban of impeachment a few weeks ago, having made his arch enemy, the Lieutenant-Governor, his Secretary of State, and thus debarred him from the succession, has again gone before the Legislature that was so recently thirsting for his blood, and again been elected United States Senator. The political tricks of Arkansas are as unfathomable as its mud.

An Omaha paper shows that the merchants of that city lack enterprise by asserting that "a country order for six barrels of A sugar would bankrupt the market."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Affairs in Paris.

PARIS, March 30.—The official journal says the Red Committee have remitted the powers to the Commune and issued a proclamation announcing the fact. The citizens' decree is abolished. Conscription is to have no force except as regards the Nationales. All able bodied men shall belong to the Nationales, and another decree [illegible] lodgers' rents from October, 1870, to April [illegible]. Another order directs public officers, on [illegible] dismissal, to disregard orders emanating from Versailles. Changes in military officers [illegible] announced as taking place in [illegible]. The placarding of Versailles documents [illegible] Delsahos and Corment desiring [illegible] the Communists have resigned their seats [illegible] Assembly. A proclamation of the Nationals urges the citizens to prove the value of liberty when we shall surely arrive at a universal Republic.

There have been 160,000 departures in ten days from Paris. Favre goes to attend the peace negotiations at Brussels.

Dispatches from London.

LONDON, March 31.—The Times' special anticipated an approaching desperate struggle. La Venguer, the organ of the Reds, threatens forcibly to eject the Assembly from Versailles. The insurgents are confident the troops will not fight them. Blanque intimated that the Ministry of the Commune deliberates on the proposal to pay the Prussians by selling Versailles for one milliard, to an Anglo-American company; Saint Cloud for eight hundred millions, to a German gambling proprietor, and Fontainbleau for five hundred millions.

The News special says the Versailles Government stops cattle and horses from entering Paris. Mails are greatly delayed—[illegible].

The Commune is active in disarming [illegible] Nationales.

Position of Germany in Relation to France.

LONDON, March 30.—A correspondent has obtained an interview with Bismarck. The state of affairs in Paris were discussed. The Prince expressed his appreciation of good sense, and consistency displayed by the people and government of the United States during the war. He proceeded to state his views fully on the situation, and to define the position Germany takes in the domestic difficulties of France, which was in substance that he denied that Germany had sent a message to the rebels declaring she would not interfere, but would maintain friendly relations. Germany will never interfere in the internal affairs of France, but all parties must respect and observe peace stipulations to the letter, and if in order to do this the legitimate French Government appeals for aid, Germany will probably extend it to a certain degree. Germany will [illegible] aid the Government of France to [illegible] order by relaxing strict regulations [illegible] liminaries. Germany will [illegible] concentration of Government [illegible] essary, give Thiers assistance [illegible] Commune of Paris.

[illegible] Bismarck declared that [illegible]

[illegible] the Germans will treat them as [illegible] and disperse them by force of arms, but so long as they do not transgress the stipulations they will be let alone.

The Paris Commune has been [illegible] privately, and the following is [illegible] Executive Committee of seven [illegible]. The Commune is divided into nine sections, namely Finance, War, Justice, Safety, [illegible] Education and Labor, Foreign and [illegible]. The names are obscure, except Jules, Platt, Fleurens and Delecluse.

BERLIN, March 30.—The state of seige in the districts occupied by the 1st, 2d, 10th and 11th corps, was raised from March 27th. Prisoners are still subject to court-martial.

Dispatches from Brussels.

BRUSSELS, March 30.—The Echo of Parliament says preliminary convention has been modified so as to grant delay in the payment of the $500,000,000 due the 1st of April.

The Independence Belge says Ulric and Fonvielle are organizing Nationals at St. Germain in support of order.

General European News.

LONDON, March 31.—A Times' letter says the situation in Paris is critical. There are apprehensions of secret proscriptions, and everybody is whispering the word, "guillotine!"

A Standard special from Bucharest, says the people threaten to demolish the hotel of the German Consul. Infantry and artillery are posted to protect Don Charles Palace. It is said the Germans will occupy Paris immediately on the downfall of Thiers. The Commune, in its proclamation, predicts a universal Republic.

The Marseilles insurrection is dying out. Lyons is quiet.

SHANGHAI, Feb. 15.—Serious disturbances are expected in Japan. One of the Mikado Councillors has been assassinated. The action was purely political.

The German Parliament.

BERLIN, March 30.—In the Reichstag, Benningsen's draft of address was voted, 243 to 63, six Poles abstaining. The Catholics opposed the Address to express principles of German intervention in regard to Rome, which was rejected.

English Parliament.

LONDON, March 31.—In the House of Commons, last night, Sir Charles Dilke said he was moved with regret that the House and Government accepted the Conference.

[illegible] concurred. It was not England's mis[illegible] preserve the peace of Europe. He advocated disarmament.

[illegible] continued the attack on Ministers, when [illegible] defended. He was severely castigated by ministerialists.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 31.—The [illegible] gives the cordon of the Legion of Honor to Gorschakoff and his heirs for settling the [Euxine?] question.

EASTERN STATES.

German Peace Celebration.

NEW YORK, March 31.—The great German peace celebration on Easter Monday will be general throughout the United States, and the demonstration in this city will equal, if not surpass, anything of the kind ever witnessed.

President Grant on San Domingo.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—A Washington correspondent writes that President Grant will not ask the consideration of the San Domingo report this session, but that he has by no means given up the idea of annexation. He is confident the people of the country are favorable to the project, and he will do all he can to assist the cause during the recess.

CUBA.

The Insurrection.

HAVANA, March 28.—Gen. Moderta Diaz, Insurgent chief, surprised in the vicinity of Bayamo, a body of 70 men of a Havana regiment. The Spaniards, after a slight resistance fled, excepting their chief. All the captured were killed. Diaz also surprised a cavalry force and killed twelve of their number. The rebel loss in these engagements is insignificant.

The continued activity in the eastern department confirms the Cuban assertion that a part of the Hornet's cargo was landed after the unfortunate attempt at Puerto Diepran. These successes following the great victory at Mayari, inspire fresh hopes in insurgent circles. General reports from the insurrectionary districts afford evidences of an ardent warlike spirit.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 1, 1871

Illicit Liquor Traffic.

The recommendation of the United States Judge and Attorney for the District of Oregon, in the case of Holbert, recently convicted of selling spirituous liquors without first obtaining a license, is made the subject of gross misrepresentation by the Herald. The object that paper has in view in the matter is, of course, to make a little political capital by denouncing "Federal tyranny," and this as usual it attempts to do by suppressing the truth. It declares that Holbert's violation of the law was wholly unintentional, that he simply mixed a "little whisky with soda in unconscious violation of an arbitrary Federal statute;" and for this he is subjected to punishment. Now we readily concede that the penalty in this case is out of proportion to the offense. A fine of $1,000 and imprisonment for six months is too severe in such a case. But the idea of representing the man as innocent of any intention to defraud the revenue is, in view of the directness of the testimony, absurd. In his front room he at first sold soda water. But afterwards he compounded and mixed with it a syrup of whisky and sugar—chiefly whisky—which syrup he called "Don't Care." This he sold to customers. If this was an unconscious violation of law, would he have been at so much pains to conceal it? Why didn't he sell his whisky openly as whisky, if he was "unconscious" of any wrong about it? The action in the matter showed conclusively that he was selling the whisky surreptitiously in order to evade the license required by law. There should be a penalty for such acts as this; but we think the United States Judge and Attorney are quite right in asking the Executive to mitigate the severity of the punishment in this and like cases. They are of opinion that one month's imprisonment and a fine of $100 would be sufficient punishment, and doubtless they are right. But their recommendation to the Executive in this case is not made on the ground of the man's "unconscious violation of law," as the Herald intimates. While that paper was talking on the subject it might as well have told the truth about it.

[illegible] the penalty in cases like this is too [illegible] as the law now stands, it should be remembered that, in order to prevent illicit trade in liquors, the laws must be rigorous. The law was enacted at a time when the frauds in the liquor traffic were of a most startling character, and it was intended to break them up. So long as we have to raise a revenue [illegible] and the liquor traffic should be taxed. [illegible] last thing that should be exempted [illegible]. And in order that the Government may not be cheated out of its revenue [illegible] source, penalties must be prescribed [illegible]. But, as in all other cases they should be proportioned to the turpitude of the offense and the extent of the fraud [illegible] attempted.

Thiers.

[illegible] statesman has been one of the very foremost men of France; through all revolutions and dynastic changes he has maintained a connection with its affairs and is at this moment the most [illegible] of living Frenchmen. No one, even in revolutionary times, raises himself to such eminence unless he possesses very great [illegible]. But [illegible] Thiers' talents are of the [illegible]. He is a man of no original thought, [illegible] convictions or unbending character. It has been said of him that he is a great [illegible] borrower rather than a great [illegible] and this seems to be a fair estimate [illegible]. He has been all through [illegible] consistent as a Frenchman,"—[illegible] swayed by ambition, impulse [illegible] rather than by a resolute will and settled conviction. He is a man in whose [illegible] a strange and almost incomprehensible mixture of Democratic and Imperial ideas. A British writer [illegible] accustomed to dissect characters with a few strokes says that "Thiers' beau ideal of society and government would be a commune [illegible] singing with enthusiasm the 'Marseillaise' and prepared at any moment to rise in insurrection itself, or assist revolution in [illegible] states, and at the same time coerced by [illegible] of Napoleon and kept in awe by the charges of his glittering cuirassiers, or the discharges of his redoubtable artillery." Thiers [illegible] essentially democratic in his feelings, [illegible] the result of all his ideas is Imperial. [illegible] The historian of the great Revolution and of the reign of Napoleon, he has done more perhaps than any other man to [illegible] the military vanity of France and thus [illegible] her present overthrow. His imagination warmly kindled at the glories of the [illegible] Emperor, and in his historical works [illegible] has thrown such a glamour over his reign [illegible] entirely captivate the French mind [illegible] the ideas of military pomp [illegible] which have for so long a period [illegible] with Frenchmen. And in [illegible] world now plainly sees the cause of [illegible] of France. The faults of Thiers [illegible] the faults of the age in [illegible] but he has aggravated [illegible] the vanity and other weaknesses of his countrymen.

Thiers is now at the head of the "regular Government" of France, but he is not a man to control affairs and mould men and events to his will. He is much more successful in keeping alive and fanning discontents than in silencing sedition and compelling obedience to authority. He lacks firmness, decision, resolution. He is now temporizing and parleying with the Paris malcontents, when the only remedy for their sedition is grape shot. It may be expected that he will fail, because he cannot grasp the situation and act with the promptitude and energy which an occasion like the present requires.

The Albany Democrat thinks that ex-Congressman Smith "has made a diligent and faithful Representative,, and that "his labors will be ever appreciated by the people of Oregon." Especially, we should say, by the people of Southern Oregon, whose railroad prospects he blasted by his senseless opposition to the Williams amendment to the Branch Railroad Bill.

A movement having for its object the nomination of Mr. Chase for President is said to be quietly organizing among a considerable number of Democratic politicians, some of whom assisted in the game which came so near nominating him in the place of Seymour. He is said to assent to the undertaking, his health being quite restored.

The Washington correspondent of the Independent very recently made the statement, on the authority of Mr. Colfax, that the Russian Minister had said that during the Rebellion Great Britain, in concert with France, had proposed to Russia to recognize the Confederacy, which proposal Russia, our friend, promptly and indignantly repelled.

Dwellings Wanted.

At this time there is quite a demand for tenement houses in this city. Hardly a single tenement suitable for a dwelling can be found vacant. It is a want which should be supplied. Owners of real estate here would do well to turn their attention more in the direction of erecting buildings. We should be glad to see some of the speculative energy in this direction which is exhibited in the larger rush for unimproved lots and blocks in all parts of the city.

It may reasonably be anticipated that large numbers of people will come to this city during the ensuing summer and fall. Every one expects a considerable augmentation of our population. But where are any great number to find dwellings? People of moderate means cannot afford to stop for any length of time at the hotels, and beyond doubt many families that would remain in Portland if they could obtain dwellings at moderate prices will be compelled to go elsewhere.

Now would it not be well for Portland if some of those who are speculating so eagerly in naked lots would turn their attention to building? And would not this course tend, besides, to lay the foundations for surer prosperity? Let it be remembered that merely buying and selling unimproved ground adds nothing to the wealth of the city. The sure basis of the wealth of a city is the improvement of streets, the erection of buildings, the concentration of fixed capital, and the multiplying of industries. That is what is needed here. We want more buildings, particularly dwellings. There is a demand for them, and the demand should be supplied.

Despite the attempts made to belittle the success of the new loan, just put on the market by Secretary Boutwell, it is meeting with favor. It is probable the first step to fund two hundred millions of the new five per cents will be successful. How the other parts of the scheme, to absorb the Government securities of 1862, 1864 and 1865, aggregating a thousand millions, may succeed, time must determine.

The lecture was very interesting, and the audience was the largest of any yet in attendance. The next lecture will be delivered next Wednesday evening by Rev. Mr. Lindsley, of Portland.

The Albany Democrat states that on last Friday night the store of Lewis Solomon, of Lancaster, Lane county, was totally destroyed by fire, goods and building sharing the same fate. Mr. Solomon was sleeping in the building at the time and was only saved by his dog, which aroused him just in time to enable him to escape, minus his outer garments. There was no insurance on the house, but we are informed that Mr. S. had a policy of $3,500 on the goods, which will only partially cover the loss.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS ITEMS.

The "American free-trademen" have sent a remonstrance to the Senate against the repeal of the duties on tea and coffee. Singular free trade!

The President has nominated and the Senate has confirmed Col. John W. Forney as Collector of Customs at the Port of Philadelphia.

The North Carolina Senate, sitting as a High Court of Impeachment, has passed an order convicting Gov. Holden and removing him from office. His offense consisted in his measures to suppress the Ku-Klux, whose friends control the North Carolina Legislature.

Gen. McClellan has resigned his position as Superintendent of the Stevens Battery, the $2,000,000 appropriated by the United States and Commodore Stevens having been exhausted.

The Times Washington correspondent telegraphs that the givings out regarding the proceedings of the Joint High Commission are without any basis whatever, so far as the details are concerned, for it is next to impossible that anything should be disclosed. All that has become known is that the discussions have progressed so far that it will probably be determined within a few days whether there is any possibility of arriving at any satisfactory conclusion. If the Commission remains in session beyond the first week of April, it will be a strong indication that an adjustment of the pending questions is probable.

A Washington dispatch of the 27th March, says: The Secretary of the Navy gave the President to-day a copy of his letter of March 31st to the Commander of the South Atlantic Fleet in reference to a letter purporting to have been addressed by Captain Temple of the steamship Tennessee to correspondents accompanying the San Domingo expedition, who had proposed a visit to Cabral, warning them, as the Executive, through his order to our naval fleet in those waters had chosen to take a part in the international conflicts of Dominica, they were liable to treatment by Cabral as spies, and would risk their lives by the expedition. Secretary Robeson states that nothing in the instructions given to Capt. Temple warranted the drawing of his conclusion concerning the employment of our naval forces, and he doubts the authenticity of the letter.

NEW YORK COMMERCIAL LETTER.

[Telegraphed to the Alta California.]

NEW YORK, March 23—P. M.—California freighting via the Cape, has been somewhat interfered with by the rainy weather; still there has been a good business done notwithstanding, and there has been no cause for complaint. Orders have come to hand freely during the past week, and there is every prospect for a fair trade for the next thirty days, after which we may look for a gradual easing off. Rates of freight continue steady, with a disposition to advance, but in the face of the low rates ruling by short routes, an advance except perhaps in some instances, could not be maintained; as they are, there is not much difference, and if shippers knew of the rates per steamers it is more than likely that they would send a large portion of their freights by that route.

The vessels on berth have done remarkably well during the past week. The Frolic and Ringleader will sail on the 25th; the Blackhawk expects to finish by the close of the month, and the Osceola by the 5th proximo. The vessels to follow in turn are taking care of whatever freight comes along. The offerings continue fair, and of a very miscellaneous character. Among the shipments I note 100 barrels of Stuart's crushed sugar; also lots of oysters, tobacco and nails, beside considerable quantities of glassware, chair stock, iron pipe, etc. Some oil is also offered, but as the shipper of Devoe's has covered all the vessels named to May 1st, none has been engaged.

Tonnage is still scarce, though the demand for cotton ports has slackened; however, owners are firm in their views, and not desirous for long voyage business, except at full rates.

Notwithstanding the combined efforts of the trunk and connecting railroad lines to Omaha, they failed to reduce the amount of freight per steamer, which, after all said and done, was nearly one hundred tons more than per the previous one. Why the steamer's freight list should have increased in the face of the opposition offered by railroad is not known, unless it was the extraordinary low figures at which it was taken. Rates are said to be much lower than the roads offered or can afford to offer. What the rates are by steamer I do not know, as the contracting agent imposes the strictest silence upon shippers while the rates are not entered upon the bills of lading; however, shippers intimate that the rates are satisfactory, and that the roads cannot touch them. That this must be the case is evident from the fact that the steamer's list increased.

Overland freights do not seem to have increased during the past week; notwithstanding increased efforts of the Eastern agents, and the inducements offered, shippers seem to feel that the efforts of the railroads are to run off the steamers. This they feel as being against their interests, and in order to keep the rates down they coquet alternately with both lines, and without their assistance the roads will find it a difficult job to break up the present Isthmus route. Shipments overland the past week include 354 packages dried fruit, chiefly raisins and prunes, per Star of the Union Line, 20 barrels oil, 25 casks tobacco, 25 pianos, 520 packages of miscellaneous goods via the Northwest road; 192 cases of tobacco, 800 packages of miscellaneous goods via the Rock Island road.

I have to take back a portion of the paragraph in the last dispatch; no gasoline has been shipped as coal oil. On inquiry, I learn that some 3,500 cases of non-explosive fluid was shipped last year, the last lot of 2,000 cases being in the Isaac Rich. This stuff came from Cleveland, and was consigned to parties here, who, not knowing its qualities, shipped it as petroleum. It is this villainous stuff that has caused such large loss of life throughout the country since it was put forward as an illuminator, and measures are being taken to prevent its sale. Two thousand cases of this stuff have been offered lately, but none of our vessels can take it, and it will probably be sent to Boston for shipment.

Flour has been dull, though prices only have been sustained by avoidance of a pressure to sell. Shippers complain of a lack of margins, though they have taken some to make good freight engagements; at the close the market was more active and strong, though not quotably higher. With a fair demand for export, wheat has shown a hardening tendency, and shipping grades are higher. Private cable advices have been more favorable than the public ones and stimulate exporters to operate more freely. At the close, market was less active, while holders are quite indifferent about selling, except at full prices.

Latest Liverpool quotation, 12 shillings. Grain freights firm; 6d. per steam; 5½d. per sail.

Wool is inactive, but prices are unchanged. There is but little demand from manufacturers, and transactions of a speculative character are light. Sales of California—215,000 pounds at 24½@28; burry Fall, 26@28½; burry Spring, 32½@37½; Spring, free of burrs, 20,000 pounds pulled at 29. Sales at Boston for the week, 56,000 pounds, at 24@30.

Teas very quiet, for all descriptions, and prices have a downward tendency.

Pacific Mail continues to be more or less affected by rumors. It is stated on pretty good authority that an item was inserted in an appropriation bill, duly passed, which authorized the Department to double the cost of the China mail service, and this is equivalent to further subsidy, although not stated in express terms.

The residence of a Virginia clergyman is troubled by ghosts. They career about the front yard in the guise of men, but leave no impression upon the snow. Knocks upon doors are frequent, but when opened disclose at blank. Bullets go through them, but leave no mark. They talk with their willing hosts, but not in the sepulchral tone of Hamlet's father. Nobody knows what these mysterious doings mean, and each particular hair in the vicinity stands on end.

The Aroostook Pioneer says one eve last week a couple of chaps, evidently from the rural districts, came into the telegraph office for the purpose of sending a dispatch. The message was taken by the operator, and the pair proceeded down stairs. They had just reached the sidewalk when the gong at the Snell House was sounded for ten. Whereupon, one of the pair went into the air several feet, exclaiming, "By Jerusalem! there it goes, Jim.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The subjoined items are from the Advocate:

An extensive revival of religion has prevailed this winter within the bounds of the Wilbur Circuit, Douglas country, Rev. J. Harer, pastor.

Rev. J. M. Harris, of the Christian Church (Campbellites), has organized a society at Oakland, Douglas county, of twenty-four members, with two Elders and a deacon.

Rev. G. W. Roork will have charge of the new Methodist Episcopal Church at Kalama, W. T., until the ensuing Annual Conference.

Rev. George Waters, Indian preacher at Fort Simcoe, W. T., and Joe Stwires, head Chief of the Yakima nation, recently visited the Nez Perces Indians, on Snake river, and held a protracted meeting among them. About one hundred arose for prayers.

A Sabbath school was organized at Kalama last Sunday. Capt. Kern was chosen as Superintendent and Mrs. VanVleet, Assistant. The school has already a good supply of new books obtained in Portland and San Francisco; and also Sunday school cards and scripture texts.

A new M. E. Church will be erected, as soon as the weather permits, at Tumwater, W. T., on lots recently donated for that purpose. Twelve hundred and fifty dollars have already been subscribed toward the enterprise. Rev. A. C. Fairchild is pastor.

J. F. Clarke, Secretary of the Taylor street M. E. Sabbath school, reports the statistics of the past quarter to be as follows: Average attendance, including missionary concerts, 320; average attendance, not including concerts, 270; average attendance of Mrs. J. Rev. Father Fierens issues the following directions for Holy Week: "Especial attention is called to the last four days of Holy Week, which are days of strict abstinence—meat being entirely forbidden—and on which you should be more particular in your fastings and mortifications. On Thursday morning the service will begin at 9 o'clock, precisely. After Mass the Blessed Sacrament will solemnly be brought in procession to the repository, which will be prepared on St. Joseph's altar, where it will remain the whole day for adoration. In the evening public prayers will be at half past 7 o'clock. On Good Friday the solemn service will begin at 9 o'clock, during which we will have the public and solemn adoration of the Cross, after which a sermon will be given on the passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ. To whom it may concern! May it be known that whenever Congress of the United States of our glorious Republic reduces the price of postage stamps, I will promise to reduce the price of paper collars to less than Twenty-five Cents a box, and I have also on hand one of the largest stocks of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods in the city of Portland, and defy competition. Isaac Barman, corner First and Alder streets, Odd Fellows' Temple.

J. O'NEIL & Co. have just received and opened one of the best assorted lots of Gents' Furnishing Goods and Clothing ever brought into this city, consisting of all kinds of Clothing, Collars, Cuffs, Gloves, Ties, Hosiery, and a large invoice of the STAR SHIRT, the best fitting and best made Shirt now worn. Their goods are of the latest styles and choicest patterns. Persons wishing spring goods and styles should not fail to give them a call. They cannot but be pleased with both their goods and prices.

We say it now as we've said it before,
That C. M. MARTIN'S GROCERY STORE
Is where you can make the best pickings
Of all sorts of game, and of chickens,
Of fresh butter and bouncing big eggs,
And fish of all sorts, dried or in kegs;
Of the best kind of bacon and hams,
And of pickles and jellies and jams;
Vegetables and fruits of the season,
And everything good that in reason
You can ask or wish to make a good dish.

SPRING STYLES.—KOHN & FISHEL, as usual, are the first to fill their store with the new Spring Styles of Clothing and Furnishing Goods. Their stock is very large, and their goods of the best quality, and latest styles. Messrs. Kohn & Fishel buy their goods in large quantities, consequently, get them at low rates and can afford to sell cheap, which they intend to do.

They respectfully invite their friends and patrons to give them a call.

WHAT IS DYSPEPSIA? THE QUESTION SETTLED.—Two young medical students were disputing the other day at the house of a mutual friend, as to the nature of dyspepsia. One said the primary cause was diseased liver; the other insisted that the disease originated in the epigastrium. "I can tell you what dyspepsia is, for I've been there," observed the host laughingly. "Well, said one of the young medicos, "let's have your opinion." "Dyspepsia," said he, "is a complaint that you can't relieve, and that PLANTATION BITTERS cures in six weeks!" The person who made this remark resides at 198 Greenwich avenue, and his name is Martin W. Myers.

SEA MOSS FARINE from pure Irish Moss, for Blanc Mange, Puddings, Custards, Creams, &c., &c. The cheapest, healthiest and most delicious food in the world,

NO WONDER.—So many worthless medicines are advertised for the cure of various diseases, and when tried "found wanting," that the invalid loses all faith in specifics. We have yet to learn however of the first failure of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, to cure coughs, colds and pulmonary disease.

Invigorate the Responsible Organ.

The stomach is the responsible organ of the system. If the digestion is imperfect, every member, every gland, every muscle, every nerve and fiber is more or less out of order. All the fluids are depraved. The brain is clouded. The spirits are depressed. All dyspeptics know this to be the truth. It is not, however, half the truth. Columns would be required to enumerate the pains and penalties of dyspepsia. Nor could any pen do them justice. Tens of thousands feel them; no man can describe them.

Can they be prevented? Can they be relieved? Can they be banished at once and forever? Unquestionably they can. No dyspeptic has ever taken Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in vain. Believe no one who says the complaint is incurable. This great vegetable stomachic will eradicate it—is eradicating it in thousands of cases over which medical practitioners have shaken their heads ominously, saying, "Nothing can be done."

The faculty has its fallacies. One of them is that indigestion is the most difficult of all the ordinary ailments of mankind to combat and subdue. This is a mistake. Nothing can be easier than to conquer it if the true specific be administered. The vegetable combination which has become famous throughout the civilized world as Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is an antidote to the disease which has never been known to fail, and fortunately it is everywhere procurable. If you wish to fool with the dyspepsia, try the pharmacopeia prescriptions. If you want to root it out and prevent its recurrence, take the Bitters daily. There is no discount on the testimony in its favor. If there is a man or woman who has ever tried it for indigestion without being benefitted, the fact has not transpired. Universal, uncontradicted praise avouches its wonderful tonic virtues.

Cheap water Pipe.

"THE ASPHALTUM PRESSURE PIPE COMPANY," of San Francisco, having purchased of the patentees the sole right to manufacture on this coast, are now making an article at their works, at Alameda Point, that will supply the general want of a cheap and durable water pipe. The invention originated in France, where these pipes are extensively used, as well as in Germany; in fact, all over Europe, almost entirely superseding for all ordinary purposes the use of iron. It is no new thing, having been in use twenty years.

Its Durability.

Being imperishable and insensible to atmospheric influences or chemical properties of the earth, it never changes, and is consequently much more durable than iron, which corrodes, and in time leaks.

It is a Non-Conductor,

And will not freeze except at a remarkably low temperature, and even then its expansive power is greater than that of frozen water. In warm weather it acts as a cooler ter water passing through it.

Neutrality to Acids and Alkalis.

This pipe is not affected by acids and alkalis, nor is it affected by galvanic currents—consequently it is invaluable in conducting telegraph wires under ground through tunnels and under bridges.

Elasticity.

The elasticity of this pipe prevents its bursting from outward shocks or concussions. The interior of the pipes being glazed, are as smooth as porcelain, and consequently are never clogged by adhering sediment.

Lightness.

The mean weight of these pipes to iron is as one to five, which not only facilitates handling, but reduces the cost of transportation.

Laying the Pipe

Is a simple matter—can be laid by any laboring man of ordinary intelligence; but the Company, if required, will always furnish a competent person, free of expense, to oversee the proper laying of the pipe. Contracts taken for any required length of pipe from water or mining companies, and warranted to stand according to contract.

Pipe Under Pressure

Can be seen at the office of the Company. We are the only parties manufacturing this pipe on the Pacific Coast under this patent. All other offered is spurious and an infringement.

Cheapness.

The cost when laid, including connections, is about one-quarter that of lead and one-half that of iron.

We manufacture this pipe in lengths of twelve feet, and ship it everywhere, by all sorts of conveyance—no special care being required. We manufacture it of any size from one to twelve inches.

Pressure.

We manufacture according to the pressure required from 1 to 600 pounds to the inch, and guarantee it to stand the pressure.

Prices.

1 inch,	10 cents per foot	For pipe capable of resisting a pressure of 160 lbs. to the square inch.
2 inch,	20 "	"
3 inch,	30 "	"
4 inch,	40 "	"
5 inch,	50 "	"
6 inch,	60 "	"
8 inch,	$1 00 "	"
10 inch,	$1 25 "	"
12 inch,	$1 50 "	"

This pipe being made of a combination of paper, canvas, and asphaltum, in lengths of twelve feet, should not be confounded with moulded asphaltum pipe in lengths of four feet.

MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 3, 1871.

The Republican Party.

Just now there are some dissensions in the Republican ranks at the East; or, at all events, there is now going on a very full and free discussion in the party of their own representatives and measures. Democrats, being strangers to such freedom of discussion in their own ranks, and never dividing on a measure, or an idea, are, of course, swift to predict that Republicans are now to be rent asunder. They have been of this opinion many times before now, and ought to learn by experience that this freedom of discussion is a means of safety to the party, just as the principle of general freedom of the press, by furnishing means whereby the complaints and bitter feelings of growlers can find a vent, is a safeguard of society and of liberty itself.

There is a time for this free criticism now; but we apprehend that when it comes to be realized, as it shortly will, that the Republican party must either stand by President Grant or fall with him; that those Republicans who are assailing him must either cease their opposition or permit a Democratic triumph, there will not be much danger but we shall have a united party. The knowledge of what a Democratic triumph would signify and lead to will cause all citizens who have at heart Republican principles and the peace of the country to unite for a common purpose of safety. Democrats are not strong enough to triumph of themselves; but of course if discontented Republicans wish to throw the country into the hands of the Democrats they have power to do it. There is no doubt in the Democratic mind as to what a triumph on their side would signify. To illustrate we may quote this "plain talk" from the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle:

> There is little doubt that the Democratic party will come into power at the next Presidential election. After that, how easy it will be to call a convention of the States. And how easy it will be for such a Constitutional Convention to undo every "result of the war" that touches the future sovereignty of the States? Such a convention can easily get rid of the present status of the Senate, and the Supreme Court as now organized, if it pleases. It can do all that is needed to wipe out the usurpations of the party now in power. Nothing is irreversible which the mongrels have done to our Federal system, unless the South gives up. The dead cannot be brought back, but all the sovereignty which has been stolen from the States can be regained or will be, if the South is not whipped in its manhood.

In the same spirit the Columbus (Ga.) Sun boasts that "dead issues" are destined to be revived again before long. It goes on:

> May we not truthfully say that treason to right has expended its fury—that despotism and profligacy in rulers have gone the length of their [illegible], and that neither foreign levy nor domestic brawl can worst our social or political condition. Why, then, we ask, should we surrender [illegible] last hope and basely abandon the right to speak out our convictions, unseduced by bribes and unawed by power? Why should not the [illegible] of liberty and the plunderers of States [illegible] at with the "slow, unmoving finger of [illegible]"

So Gen. Blair, in a recent speech in the [illegible], said that the contest to be fought [illegible] year was to be fought on the principles [illegible] in the constitutional amendments [illegible] reconstruction acts; that all the talk [illegible] low taxes and a sound system of [illegible] was but by-play; that the great question in issue lay far beyond these simple incidents of the struggle, and that that question was "as to the Government itself." That is, the issue is to be as it has been heretofore, whether we have a National Government or not; whether we are to have peace [illegible] perpetual commotions, and perhaps another [illegible] war.

[illegible] are of opinion that there are no Republicans who would sacrifice the country in [illegible] gratify the spite which they have [illegible], or to take revenge for what they [illegible] absurdly call the "outrage" on Mr. [illegible]. But if there are such they have [illegible] drag Gen. Grant down, to find that [illegible] have hopelessly fallen with them.

The Philadelphia Press notes that the Western Democracy, to whom of right belongs their party nomination for President in 1872, appear to be divided among themselves, while great Tammany's councils are as harmonious and united as could be desired by its most earnest follower. Between Hendricks and Pendleton, Indiana and Ohio, there exists a bitter feud which will utterly destroy the chances of both. The friends of Hoffman, on the other hand, are actively at work making capital for their favorite and preparing to walk him over the course in 1872. With plenty of money and no lack of shrewd ability, they are starting papers all over the country in the interests of Hoffman, whose star is rapidly rising and will soon be in the ascendant; and, while they work for their man, they do not neglect their party.

> The last Legislature took the much needed step towards securing to this State the swamp lands to which it was entitled. This action should have been taken years ago.—Herald.

Then why was it not taken by the Democratic State authorities years ago? The time [illegible] should have been taken, in order to [illegible] whole grant, was during the White[illegible] administration. Two letters were written [illegible] General Land Office to the State [illegible], requesting some action in the [illegible] but both were neglected. By the [illegible] Republicans came into power the [illegible] lost, through Democratic neglect, [illegible] swamp lands that had been surveyed up to that time. It is now about to lose most of the remainder through the rapacity of the "ring" that purchased the enactment of the swamp land law of last fall.

Postal Agent Underwood, who has just returned to this city from a tour on the Pacific Railroad as far east as Salt Lake, reports that a large number of persons are coming west whose destination is Oregon, and that in the cars and at all points along the route there is much talk about our State. In California, also, much more interest is manifested in Oregon than ever before. He also states that there is a large passenger travel from the Pacific railroad by the stage routes through Idaho to Oregon. Wherever he has been he has heard much inquiry about our State, and he thinks the indications are that we shall have a larger immigration this year than during the last three taken together.

The New York World promises to "make it very hot" for those Democratic Congressmen who vote to retain the duties on salt and coal. But those Congressmen would prefer to encounter the displeasure of the World to that of their constituents. Had they voted as that paper wanted them to they would never get back to Congress again.

A letter by Arnold Hague, U. S. Geologist, is published, in which an account is given of glaciers on Mount Hood, which the writer visited last summer. He proposes to visit Mount St. Helens, Mount Adams and Mount Baker during the coming summer.

Beecher on Sumner.

Of all the multitude of articles written in regard to the displacement of Sumner and the excitement produced by it, decidedly the best one we have seen is an editorial in the Christian Union,—Henry Ward Beecher's paper. The material portions of the article are as follows:

> The whole truth, we suppose, lies in this, that, with all his eminent excellencies, Mr. Sumner does not know how to yield anything to others He does not know how to have a conscience supreme over himself without making it supreme over others. * * * He makes his own convictions the imperious law of other men's; he is apt to regard as personal foes all who do not accept his judgments; he is a poor leader and a worse follower.
> It was stated in the debate, in the Senate, that Mr. Sumner was not in social relations either with the President, or with the Secretary of State. The charge was not denied, it was only met by saying that Mr. Sumner was at all times ready to confer with Gen. Grant or Mr. Fish, on public affairs! * * * To put a personal enemy of the President at the head of the committee through which the President is to be in sympathy with the Senate, is as if a gentleman should attach a galvanic battery to the bell pull of his door, and then marvel that people preferred to transact their business with somebody else! * * * It is feared by some, and hoped by others, that a deadly wound has been given to the Republican party. If that party has so slender a hold on the country that a change of a Chairman of a Senate committee can destroy it, it is time that it be destroyed. But we have no such belief, and have no fears as to its danger. Mr. Wilson spoke with the exaggeration of excited feeling when he declared that ninety in a hundred in the party would be offended by this action. In fact, Mr. Sumner is not a man to win personal influence among the common people, or to create popular enthusiasm toward himself. The men who will regret this history are the moral and thoughtful men of the party, and such men will revise their first impressions. They will not, at any rate, abandon the party on such slender reason as the dispossession of a trusted and honored man from a place of influence. This is one of those political whirlwinds to which our politics are subject, whose very violence will make it of short duration.

The writer of the above has stated the case with remarkable good sense and and judgment. The idea of representing Mr. Sumner as an unoffending martyr is absolutely ludicrous. Who provokes resentments or carries them to so violent an extreme as he? And who knows the man better than Mr. Beecher, who has given the above sketch of him and of this affair?

The Nathan Murder Mystery Cleared Up.

A few days ago it was announced that traces of the murderer of Nathan were believed to have been discovered in Nevada. The New York police have become satisfied that the murderer is none other than a well known thief and desperado named William Forrester, with a dozen aliases. So certain is the Chief of Police of New York of this fact that he has sent to every Chief of Police in the United States and many in Europe the following circular:

> Twenty five hundred dollars will be paid for the arrest and delivery at the office of the Superintendent of Police in the City of New York of Billy Forrester, alias Billy or Frank Campbell, alias Frank Livingstone, alias Frank Harding, alias Frank Howard; age, 35 years; height, five feet six inches; of slim build, but tough and wiry; rather broad, square shoulders; weighs 140 pounds; has a rather long, spare face; black hair, and having a wild expression; high, square forehead; mouth narrow and corners drawn down; upper lip stands out a little; medium sized straight nose; straight black hair, cut short; heavy, black mustache, curled at the ends toward the mouth; sunken cheeks, but high cheek bones; small, narrow foot; generally walks with his hands in his coat pockets; tooth out of left upper jaw; bracelet in India Ink on left wrist.
> JAS. J. KELSO,
> Supt. Police, City of New York.

Though the Superintendent declines to give the source of his information the New York Tribune says it is almost certain it was obtained from Geo. Ellis, a burglar, now in Sing Sing for a burglary committed in June, 1870. Nathan was murdered two months after the sentence of Ellis. Not long after the murder Ellis informed one of the prison officers that he knew who the murderer was. On being brought before Superintendent Jourdan—we quote the rest of the story:

> Ellis confessed that he and Forrester had planned the robbery of Nathan's house, and he believed that Forrester had carried the plan into effect. They did not suppose Nathan or his sons were in the house, as it was known that the Nathans were passing the summer at their country residence at Morristown, N. J. The thief was discovered by Nathan while operating on the safe in a room adjoining the one in which he slept, and Nathan was killed by Forrester with the iron dog which has so often been described, and which is alleged to have been stolen from the wine cellar of P. F. Church on Fifth Avenue, which was entered some time previous by a party of burglars.
> These are believed to be the principal facts on which Superintendent Kelso, Justice Dowling and Judge Cardozo base their belief that Forrester is the assassin. In addition, ever since the murder he has avoided all his old companions, and has not been seen in any of his well known haunts in this and other cities. It is more than probable that he is in some out-of-the way place in the far west, or in some small country town working as a laborer or at a trade, endeavoring by this means to divert suspicion. Certain it is he has not been seen by any of the police of our large cities since the date of the murder. He is too well known to the heads of police of the various cities to have escaped their search had he made his appearance in any large town.

During the year 1869 the quantity of wheat imported into Great Britain from the United States was 19,028,360 bushels—a much larger quantity than was imported into that country from any other quarter. Russia, however, furnished Great Britain during the same year with over 12,000,000 bushels.

CALIFORNIA ITEMS.

Sacramento city and county captured about $27,000 of the Grass Valley coin, distributed by the late lottery.

The German peace jubilee in San Francisco yielded $13,000 for the relief of those who have been made sufferers by the war.

The Democratic outlook in California seems to be rather unfavorable for the renomination of Gov. Haight. Johnson is stealing Haight's anti-subsidy thunder and slaughtering him with it.

The California Executive Republican State Committee have adopted a resolution to hold a general meeting of the committee on May 4th, to determine the day for holding the State Convention. They also make certain suggestions to the county committees about organizing clubs.

The Stockton Independent, after copying the list of newspapers which have declared for Booth for Governor, adds: Twenty five papers which represent twenty-one counties of the State unite in this indorsement. There are some six or eight additional Republican papers in the State, several of which, for some reasons which they do not explain, prefer any other man in the Republican ranks than Booth for Governor. Two or three of the San Francisco papers have spoken favorably of Booth, but appear to prefer Selby or Pacheco, although Booth has unquestionably more real strength among merchants of San Francisco than any other man in the State. Booth is especially popular in the mining and agricultural counties.

Following are the articles furnished in the San Francisco Almshouse, all of the very best quality: "Fresh beef, mutton, pork, fresh fish, salt cod, ham, bacon, chickens, turkeys, coffee, tea, white sugar, light brown sugar, rice, corn meal, beans, salt, pepper, vinegar, mustard, golden syrup, dried apples, dried peaches, eggs, flour, buckwheat, oatmeal, corn starch, farina, sago, macaroni, vermicelli, chocolate, pickles, sweet oil, fresh butter, assorted spices, vegetables; vegetables canned, viz: tomatoes, corn and peas; fruits canned, viz: pie fruits, peaches, jellies; fresh California oysters, extracts for flavoring pastries, lard, bread, potatoes, sal soda, etc.; castile soap and tobacco!" The San Francisco Call says: "No wonder the Almshouse contains, on an average, from five to six hundred inmates."

OREGON.

The assessment value of property at Salem is $1,165,000.

The municipal election at Eugene City takes place to-day (Monday).

Indians are very numerous at the Dalles, and the Mountaineer complains of them as a nuisance.

The household effects of Gov. Woods at Salem are offered for sale. The Governor is preparing to depart for Utah.

The West Side states that Johnson Parry of North Yamhill died last week from taking an overdose of laudanum.

Columbus Brown of Dayton has sold one half interest in his store at that place to Messrs. Harker Bros. of Portland.

The Corvallis Gazette states that a man named Wilbur Eddy, three miles from that place, died suddenly on returning from a ride.

An Oregonian traveling in Iowa writes to the West Side that it is so long since the people there had seen coin they could not tell a $2 50 from a $5 00 piece.

A man named William Butcher was arrested in Wasco county a few days ago on a charge of horse stealing. It is alleged that he committed the theft in Umatilla county.

The West Side earnestly urges the erection of a new school house at McMinnville; and to enforce its arguments it cites the success of Germany in the late war and the French disasters at Sedan, etc.

The Salem Statesman says the organization of the Library Association has been postponed until next December, as so many other associations were already under way or projected in the community. About $700 had been subscribed.

M. H. Money, Esq., who came by the last steamer to this place, intends shortly to commence the publication of a newspaper at Kalama. Mr. Money is from Jefferson, Iowa. He brings his family with him and comes to stay.

From the Corvallis Gazette: Among the immigrants by the steamer Pacific, and who came up on the Reliance last Thursday, were Messrs. Daniel Felky, James Nesbitt and Edward Rose of Iowa, and two others (we do not remember their names) from Maine, and several from Montana. Most of them have families, and are looking out for homes in this valley.

From the Eugene Journal: Messrs. J. H. McClung and Wm. Pengra started last Monday with two sets of hands to survey on the McKenzie river and in Mohawk precinct. The country on the McKenzie has never been surveyed above Mr. Stormant's place, about twenty miles from here, although there is a quantity of good land above that point. We know of a number of persons who intend to locate homesteads on the McKenzie as soon as it is surveyed.

The Albany Register states that work on the new college building at Monmouth will commence as soon as the weather will permit. The building is to be of brick, 74x36 feet, two stories high; the upper story to be used as a chapel, and the lower story divided into two rooms and used for school purposes. The building will cost some $10,000, and will be an ornament to the State. The college belongs to the Christian denomination, and will be presided over by Rev. T. F. Campbell.

It is stated that the prosecution of work on the canal and locks at Wallamet Falls will be immediately entered upon. The constructor is Mr. John Morris, who arrived by last steamer. The Bulletin says: He will introduce in the construction the celebrated diamond drills, the same as those used in the boring of the great St. Cenis railway tunnel through the Alps, and which exceed any drills ever invented. They are driven by machinery to make 1,100 revolutions a minute, and they bore through the hardest rock at the rate of from twelve to twenty feet an hour.

From the Mountaineer: On Monday evening last we were visited by something, at least, novel in the stock line for this section. To the enterprise of our fellow townsman, Mr. B. D. Butler, are we indebted for the introduction of the Angora or Cashmere goat—thirty-four in number. Indeed, Mr. Butler in connection with a gentleman from Oregon City (who had a few by the same steamer) are the pioneers in this business in our State. His flock consists of two full bloods, the remainder being three quarters, seven eighths and fifteen-sixteenths. They were purchased of Wm. M. Landrum of Santa Cruz, county, Cal.

CURRENT NOTES.

The President has ordered twelve companies of troops to South Carolina to suppress Kukluxism in that State.

There 535,000 Roman Catholics in the State of Pennsylvania, out of a total population of 3,517,273; or fifteen and one fifth per cent.

The Prairie Farmer reports the failure of John T. Alexander, the largest farmer and stock raiser in the West. His liabilities are set down at $1,000,000, while his assets are said to greatly exceed that sum. Alexander owns 15,000 acres in Morgan county, Ill., and 25,000 acres in Ford county.

A resolution regretting Senator Sumner's removal from the Chairmanship of the Foreign Relations Committee, has been adopted in the Pennsylvania Senate by a vote of 15—all Democrats but one—to 12—all Republicans. The idea of Democrats seriously regretting Sumner's removal is ridiculous. His removal by death would have been gratifying to them at any time for the last fifteen years.

A late dispatch from Kingston, Jamaica, states that the United States steamer Nipsic had arrived at Aspinwall from Atrato. The Isthmus surveying party had arrived at the summit of the dividing ridge, and ascertained that the elevation would be less than two hundred feet. This result is much more favorable than was anticipated, as it was supposed the hight would be more than 390 feet. The cost of constructing and that of working the ship canal, will be far less than was anticipated.

The Issue for 1872.

[From the Missouri Democrat.]

Were it morally possible for the Democracy to accept the reconstruction, there might be a third party in the next Presidential campaign. But when the Democrats of the leading State of Indiana, by their unanimous vote in both branches of the Legislature, declare the Fifteenth Amendment to be null; when only at last session of Congress all the Democrats in the national House proclaimed by their votes that they hold both the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments to be void; when even those Democrats who assent to the present validity of the amendments zealously insist that their ratification was effected by an unconstitutional and fraudulent process; then it is evident that the paramount issue for 1872 is made up in advance by the Democracy, and that for the friends of the Reconstruction nothing is left but to join in overwhelming that incurably pestilent party.

Even in the Missouri Legislature, where the Democratic element might have been expected to show a progressive spirit, a resolution to indorse the Reconstruction met the united hostility of the Democrats of the House, and a considerately substituted resolution, pronouncing against any movement towards unsettling the Reconstruction, fared but very little better. This action of the Democratic members was taken under the leadership of General Blair. Although the distinct proposition to oppose questioning the validity of the Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments was before the House of which he was a member, the author of the Broadhead letter gave that proposition no support. Whether this was because some Democrats might not have voted for him as Senator had he given that support, or because the sentiment itself was distasteful to him, or because he was too chivalrous to permit himself to be voted for on any such ground as that he was for establishing tranquility by holding the amendments final, matters little. In either case no proof that Democrats are ready to accept and maintain the situation was furnished, but the contrary. In neither case is evidence afforded that the subsequent qualification of the Broadhead letter expressed any sincerely cherished conviction.

To show conclusively what the paramount question for 1872 must be, we refer once more to the view of the progressive wing of the Democracy as represented by General Blair. Democrats of the Indiana kind hold the amendments null. Democrats of the kind represented by about every Democrat in the National House of Representatives, at the last session, hold them to be null. At least, every Democrat present at the time voted against a resolution recognizing them as valid. But General Blair, after bitterly and passionately denouncing them as adopted unconstitionally and by fraud, has made a tame, tardy and extorted admission that they are valid. What now does he regard as the paramount question for 1872? What does he think of the relative importance of questions of tariff, finance, &c.? Read the opening paragraph of his reply to Mr. Morton. There it will be found that the Democratic Senator from Missouri, and the Republican Senator from Indiana, agree on the issue for the next campaign. General Blair declares that "the questions involved in the reconstruction act of Congress" are those he regards "as of paramount importance to the country." He takes pains to leave no room for misapprehension, and adds: "Other questions which attract much attention and employ some of the best minds of our country, do not, in my opinion, deserve the prominence which has been given them, at this juncture. I do not undervalue the great advantages to the people of low taxes, and a sound system of finance; but these are only incidents to the great question beyond, as to the government itself."

"The great question beyond" is the right and power of this nation to perpetuate itself by crushing treason within as well as repelling assault from without. That States may at once fight the nation and form an authoritative part of it; marshal armies to destroy it, and stand in its legislative halls to make its laws; engage in rebellion, and have in the government a voice in the making of terms with themselves; is the monstrous dogma for for which General Blair proposes that the Democracy shall fight its lost battles over again.

The Chronicle says two men in business in San Francisco, and worth about $20,000 each, allow their old father to remain an inmate of the Almshouse of that city. Is there no tar in San Francisco? nor yet any feathers there?

The Committee on Constitution and By-laws asked for two weeks further time to report, which was granted.

Mr. Lloyd Brooke was excused from serving as Secretary, and on motion, Mr. J. B. Fagan was chosen to fill the vacancy.

The names of John W. King, Major [illegible] Illinois Volunteers, and James M. [illegible] Missouri Volunteers, were added to the list of membership.

The Association adjourned to meet on Saturday evening, April 15th, at half past seven at the County Court Room.

The subjoined paragraphs and resolution were prepared for publication in the Argentory and finds a place here at the request of Mr. [illegible] Principal of the Portland Academy.

DIED.—At his home about three miles from East Portland, Oregon, Thursday, March [illegible] 1871, Mr. Frederick F. Hosford, aged 18 years.

The news of Mr. Hosford's death has fallen like a knell upon the ears of his many warm friends in our school and throughout the [illegible] city. Frederick was for a long time a [illegible] of the Portland Academy, and by his many [illegible] qualities won the love and esteem of his [illegible] and fellow pupils by whom he will long [illegible] membered as a generous, manly and true hearted friend, and as a studious and persevering student.

Upon the fact of his death being announced [illegible] the school, the following was unanimously adopted by the teachers and pupils of the [illegible] Academy.

Resolved, That we have heard with profound sorrow of the death of Frederick F. Hosford, [illegible] eral terms a student of this Institution and while [illegible] in earnest prayer for God's healing and [illegible] porting blessings upon the bereaved family [illegible] affliction, we will strive to emulate his many virtues as a scholar, looking by faith out of this sorrow as from all others of this life to the deathless school of the life to come.

PRINTING IN COLORS.—The execution of a job of printing in two or more colors has always been slow and expensive, as in most job houses each color requires a distinct inking process and distinct impression. Contrivances have been [illegible] for printing in colors by means of [illegible] and a peculiar process of passing [illegible] through the press, but even these [illegible] been expensive and the process [illegible] H. Himes, of this city, has shown [illegible] sample sheets containing [illegible] printed on an ordinary Gordon [illegible] of each sheet being performed [illegible] ing and one impression. He [illegible] hit upon a plan whereby the [illegible] done as rapidly as plain printing [illegible] of any but the ordinary class [illegible] cost, save the difference in the [illegible] than that of plain printing [illegible] are not permitted just now to [illegible] in which it is done, but it will [illegible] his proposed improvement of [illegible] for printing in colors, is certainly feasible.

BOARD OF DELEGATES.—A regular meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Fire Department was held at the Police Court room, [illegible] evening.

The Judiciary Committee to whom was [illegible] the appeal of C. Ball, from [illegible] Engine Co. No. 4, submitted a report which was read and then committed to the same committee.

The Committee on Exempt Certificates reported favorably upon the applications of [illegible] Jacob Stitzel and James Bothwell, and [illegible] ordered placed on file.

The meeting adjourned.

A STATISTICIAN.—A correspondent [illegible] been writing to the Olympia [illegible] furnishing that paper w[illegible] city. Among other items [illegible] nishes the following [illegible] room, news depot, 2 churches under [illegible] 400 feet; one town plat, of which [illegible] is on the bottom lands, and balance [illegible] miles on the rise in the rear." The city [illegible] grown to the dignity of having "one town [illegible] may be now considered out of danger and doing as well as could be expected."

REPUBLISHED.—The advertisement asking proposals for the construction of the [illegible] head of First street is republished [illegible] found in our columns to-day. There was an informality about the [illegible] matter which makes it necessary [illegible] again. The specifications for the [illegible] abstracted or mislaid and could [illegible] the Auditor's office, hence the [illegible] begun again de novo.

LITERARY SOCIETY.—A literary and scientific society was organized Saturday evening. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and the following officers elected: W. Lair Hill, President; J. W. Whalley, Vice President; [illegible] Secretary; J. J. Henderson, Recording Secretary; and J. M. Murphy, Corresponding Secretary; Executive Committee—Edmund T. Coleman, [illegible] V. Smith and M. W. Fechheimer.

GOODS RECEIVED OVERLAND.—Two or three days since a lot of goods was landed here which had been shipped out by railroad from the East to Boise city, and brought thence by way of the Columbia river route to Portland. This is the first shipment we ever heard of by that route. The owners will probably stop them here and open out.

DOMESTIC EXPORTS.—The bark Webfoot completed her cargo for San Francisco at Springville on Saturday. It consists of 250 tons of wheat, 58 barrels pork; 216 pounds beef, 6,734 quarter sacks of flour. The vessel will be taken to sea by the steamer Dixie Thompson this morning. A deck load of lumber will be received at Astoria.

MISSIONARY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONCERT.—The monthly missionary Sunday school concert at the Taylor Street M. E. Church, yesterday afternoon, was attended by a very large audience. The exercises were quite interesting in character, consisting, as usual, of singing, recitations, declamations, an address, etc.

A QUORUM.—Our jocund and rotund friend Hallock returned by the last steamer, and the city government again has a quorum. It is understood that those "natty blue" uniforms, with brass buttons, stoches and plug hats, will be ready for the police, and then everything will be lovely.

MRS. [illegible] will commence her School on Tuesday next, at corner of Third and Main street east side of the Plaza.

CITY.

Veterans of the Mexican War.—Pursuant to adjournment, the veterans of the Mexican war met at the office of the City Surveyor, Saturday evening, Gen. Canby, President, in the chair.

The Committee on Constitution and By-laws asked for two weeks further time to report, which was granted.

Mr. Lloyd Brooke was excused from serving as Secretary, and on motion, Mr. J. H. Eagan was chosen to fill the vacancy.

The names of John W. King, Major Fourth Illinois Volunteers, and James M. Partlow, First Kentucky Volunteers, were added to the list of membership.

The Association adjourned to meet on Saturday evening, April 15th, at half-past seven, at the County Court Room.

The following paragraphs and resolution were sent for publication in the Repository and find a place here at the request of Mr. Rogers, Principal of the Portland Academy:

Died—At his home about three miles from East Portland, Oregon, Thursday, March 23d, 1871, Mr. Frederick F. Hosford, aged 18 years.

The news of Mr. Hosford's death has fallen like a heavy blow upon the ears of his many warm friends in our school and throughout the community. Frederick was for a long time a student of the Portland Academy, and by his many good qualities won the love and esteem of his teachers and fellow students, by whom he will long be remembered as a generous, manly and true hearted friend, and as a studious and persevering student.

Upon the fact of his death being announced to the school, the following was unanimously adopted by the teachers and pupils of the Portland Academy:

Resolved, That we have heard with profound sorrow of the death of Frederick F. Hosford, for several years a student of this Institution, and while we join in earnest prayer for God's healing and supporting blessings upon the bereaved family in their affliction, we will strive to emulate his many virtues as a scholar, looking by faith out of this sorrow and from all others of this life to the deathless shield of the life to come.

Printing in Colors.—The execution of a job of printing in two or more colors has always been slow and expensive, as in most job houses each color requires a distinct inking process and distinct impressions. Contrivances have been invented for printing in colors by means of skeleton forms and a peculiar process of passing the sheets through the press, but even these have always been slow and the process slow. Mr. Geo. H. Himes, of this city, has shown us, however, sample sheets containing five separate colors, printed on an ordinary Gordon press, the printing of each sheet being performed with only one inking and one impression. He has, he is confident, hit upon a plan whereby this kind of work can be done as rapidly as plain printing, without the use of any but the ordinary chase, and at no greater cost, save the difference in the price of fancy inks, than that of plain printing with black ink. We are not prepared just now to describe the manner in which it is done, but it will work, sure; and a valuable improvement of the common press for printing in colors, is certainly feasible.

Board of Delegates.—A regular meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Fire Department was held at the Police Court room, Saturday evening.

The Committee to whom was referred the matter of C Ball, from Protection Engine Co. No. 4, submitted a report which was read and the matter referred to the same committee.

The Committee on Exempt Certificates reported favorably upon the applications of H. Stoupe, Jacob Bitterl and James Bothwell, and on motion, ordered placed on file.

The Board adjourned.

Kalama.—A correspondent has been writing to the Olympia Transcript about Kalama, supplying that paper with statistics of the new city. Among other items, the statistician furnishes the following "No saloon, billiard room, some depot, 2 churches under way, 1 wharf 66 by one town plat, of which 66 by 400 rods … lands, and balance of 4 square … in the rear." The city, having … the dignity of having "one town plat," … out of danger and "doing … be expected."

The Bridge.—The advertisement asking proposals for the construction of the bridge at the foot of First street is republished and will be found … to-day. There was an informality about the former proceedings in the matter which makes it necessary to give notice again. IN MEMORIAM.

Died.—At Kalama, W. T., on the 28th day of March, 1871, of congestion of the lungs, Charles H. Reed, a native of Boothbog, Maine, aged 53 years. The deceased was Master of the Masonic Lodge of St. Helens, Oregon, and the interment was conducted by the Fraternity and the customary ceremonies of their order.

At a special meeting of St. Helen's Lodge, No. 32, A. F. & A. M., held at their Hall in St. Helens, Oregon, on Thursday the 30th day of March, 1871, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, Death has again visited our Fraternal circle and the Grand Architect of the Universe has called from among us our well beloved brother Charles H. Reed, Master of our Lodge.

Resolved, That in the decease of our late brother the Lodge has lost a useful member and faithful officer, the Fraternity a true Mason and the community at large a good citizen. We mourn his departure, but have cause for rejoicing in his many acts of kindness and benevolence.

Resolved, That we tender to the afflicted widow our heartfelt sympathies in this her sad hour of sorrow and commend her to the Grand Master above for comfort and consolation.

Resolved, That in token of our sorrow our Lodge be draped in mourning for the space of thirty days.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to the widow of our deceased brother, also for publication, to the Vancouver Register, the Oregonian and the Oregon Herald.

WEATHER RECORD.

The following table as set up in our paper of Saturday morning, made it mighty hot for the Webfeet. A range of thermometer from 330 to 690 degrees is drawing it rather too strong—just a trifle more "red hot" than the Black Republicans found it in the last State canvass. In justice to the thermometer, we wish to state that that instrument had nothing to do with the extreme thawy state of the weather as indicated by Saturday's figures; it was cooked up by the printer. We propose now to divide his effort by 10 and get the weather back to its normal state.

AMUSEMENTS.

Oro Fino Theater.—The present week is the last of the theatrical season. The entertainments to be offered will be, each night, first-class. To-night, Miss Annie Pixley will take a benefit, when a great bill will be offered—the burlesque of William Tell, and Meg's Diversion, to be followed by a grand musical and terpsichorian melange. To-morrow night, the standard popular drama of East Lynne.

Beautiful Things.—If the ladies want to look at lovely things, let them go and examine the new stock of spring styles at Mrs. Clark's millinery store, corner of Washington and First streets. There are enough "things of beauty," "joys forever," etc., there to break the hearts of all the ladies who can't get them, and all husbands, papas and lovers of those who do get them.

To whom it may concern: May it be known that whenever Congress of the United States of our glorious Republic reduces the price of postage stamps, I will promise to reduce the price of paper collars to less than Twenty-five Cents a box, and I have also on hand one of the largest stocks of Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods in the city of Portland, and defy competition. Isaac Barman, corner First and Alder streets, Odd Fellows' Temple.

J. O'Neil & Co. have just received and opened one of the best … lots of Gents' Furnishing Goods and Clothing ever brought into this city, consisting of all kinds of Clothing, Collars, Cuffs, Gloves, Ties, Hosiery, and a large invoice of the Star Shirt, the best fitting and best made shirt now worn. Their goods are of the latest styles and choicest patterns. Persons wishing spring goods and styles should not fail to give them a call. They cannot but be pleased with both their goods and prices.

Spring Styles.—Kohn & Fishel, as usual, are the first to fill their store with the new Spring Styles of Clothing and Furnishing Goods. Their stock is very large, and their goods of the best quality, and latest styles. Messrs. Kohn & Fishel buy their goods in large quantities, consequently, get them at low rates and can afford to sell cheap, which they intend to do.

They respectfully invite their friends and patrons to give them a call.

Barbour's Linen Thread is strong and even, and is superior to any other in the market. Try it and be convinced of its superiority.

Barbour's Carpet Thread, made from the finest quality of Irish Flax, is stronger, better and cheaper than any other.

WILLIAM DAVIDSON,

THE TERRITORIES.

Enoch G.
Adams, he,
In his Vancouver Expounder,
Has a four-column rhyme,
Written once on a time,
As a school composition
And an exposition
Of love, war and arms,
And of battle's alarms,
In a style and manner t' astound yer!

Rev. Father Chirouse has been appointed sub-agent at the Tulalip Reservation, W. T.

On the 21st ult. Dennis McCarty was shot and killed by Dennis Crowley on Granite creek, Idaho.

The Seattle Intelligencer, referring to the question of moving the capital from Olympia to Kalama, tells the Olympians not to be frightened, as Seattle will be the future capital.

Following are Puget Sound fishing returns for 1871: The schooner Alaska, of 138 tons burden, 240,000 pounds of codfish, valued at 6 cents per pound, $14,000. Schooner Shooting Star, 72 tons, 63,000 pounds of codfish, valued at 6½ cents per pound, $4,095. Total value, $18,495. Both schooners will be again sent north in a few weeks on codfish voyages.

We say it now as we've said it before,
That C. M. Martin's Grocery Store
Is where you can make the best pickings
Of all sorts of game, and of chickens,
Of fresh butter and bouncing big eggs,
And fish of all sorts, dried or in kegs;
Of the best kind of bacon and hams,
And of pickles and jellies and jams;
Vegetables and fruits of the season,
And everything good that in reason
You can ask or wish to make a good dish.

☞ Catarrh is a common disease, so common that snuffing and "hawking" reach you at every turn. Your foot slips in its nasty discharge, in the omnibus or in church, and its stench disgusts at the lecture or the concert. Be Guided by what you Know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters meets the test most triumphantly, and hence its immense popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for his common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts not assertions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and impostors, some of them mere local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wider range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids, their haphazard concoctions, as substitutes for the tonic which for so many years has been a medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

Put Yourself in His Place

It is a very good rule in all things of life,
When judging a friend or a brother,
Not to look at the question alone on one side
But always turn to the other
We are apt to be selfish in all of our views
In the jostling headlong race,
And also to be right ere you censure a man
Just "put yourself in his place"

It is very hard to be just—to know
The reason another may gave—
How much he has struggled fought and striven,
How honestly tried to live
How much been cheated—how sorely tried,
Fro the wrong he was forced to embrace;
And if you would learn these things the way
Is to "put yourself in his place"

There's many a man crushed down by shame,
Who blameless stands before God
Put whom his fellows have utterly scorned,
And made to "pass under the rod"
Whose soul is unstained by the thought of sin
Who yet will find saving grace,
Who would be praised where you now condemn
If you would "put yourself in his place"

Sumner and his Minister.

The Oakland (Cal) News has the following article on the origin of Sumner's and Trumbull's hostility to the Administration

Had J. Lathrop Motley never gone to England as Minister of the United States, we should not have heard the stentorian tones of Charles Sumner raised against the policy of this Administration The war club brandished in the air by the Free Traders is like an empty threat devoid of execution. A retrospective glance covering a space of nearly two years, presents several important preludes to the drama now being enacted at Washington

First, we find Charles Sumner urging the President to dispatch J. Lathrop Motley to the Court of St James as a typical representative of American views on the Alabama controversy We know that certain instructions were given to him, embodying the wishes of the Administration How they were carried out we also know. Instead of representing the views of his Government, we find him following the counsels of only one man, and that man the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations. Whilst the executive never expressed any aversion to Minister Motley marrying his daughter to the English nobility, and courting assiduously all the aristocratic snobs of the realm, he did remonstrate against his quoting and recognizing the opinions of Sumner, as an antidote for the Alabama ills, antecedent to the expressed wishes and instructions of the Secretary of State.

We next find Mr Motley recalled and Sumner warring against the foreign policy of the Administration, arguing against the annexation of San Domingo in such a strain as to convince the majority of the Senate that private animosity rather than the public good was uppermost in his mind, his fixed determination to make an on-slaught on the Administration in a lengthy and exhaustive speech was freely advertised all over the country, but prudence and the dread of public sentiment overcame his worst passions, and it was delayed, much to the disappointment of the Motley throng who crowded the galleries eager to witness the disgraceful scene.

Now, it is only in accordance with a time honored custom and a policy necessary to the success of every Administration, to remodel Committees whenever a Chairman, by virtue of his position, opposes the wishes of the people Senator Sumner had ceased to hold communication with either the President or Secretary of State, and his action in this di[illegible] disarranged and impeded the machinery of the Government. For these rea[illegible] Senate decided it best for the inter[illegible] country to place a man at the head [illegible] committee whose views and relations [illegible] harmony with the Administration. [illegible] Trumbull—unlike Sumner—voted [illegible] the impeachment of Andrew Johnson, [illegible] retaining a bad man in power, but, [illegible] fast drifting into the ranks of [illegible] Democratic party. It will be remember[illegible] a short time ago, a few choice [illegible] met in the city of New York. Among was Senator Trumbull and William Cullen Bryant, the great Free Trade advocate [illegible] had in process of incubation a plot to force this doctrine of Free Trade on the Republican party, under the name of tariff reform Now, this meant simply the repudiation of the national debt, for the revenue arising from the tariff is by law devoted, first, to the payment of the interest on the public debt. If that was not meant to swamp the party and force it to carry the weight of Democratic doctrines, pray tell us what is? The [illegible] manipulated by Trumbull and Bryant, raised the hue and cry of Tariff Reform' Civil Service Reform' etc., but the people never endorsed the carrying out of such a glittering scheme

President Grant has proved by his economical administration that he is in favor of all [illegible] tending to purify the Civil Service, [illegible] opposed to the repudiating scheme of Trumbull, Bryant & Co Their effort to force recruits into building up a "third party," is dead, and no efforts of these remarkable Committeemen can ever galvanize it into life.

GARDENING AS WOMAN'S WORK —This has long seemed to me an employment in which woman would not only gain health and strength, but in which the most modest and retiring might find a congenial occupation, and the products of which are never depreciated because raised by a woman A peck of peas has a certain market value, not dependent upon the hands which raised them. A woman who works at making pants receives fifty cents a day, not on account of the amount or quality of her work, but because she is a woman A man engaged upon the same garments receives $2 a day, not because of the amount or quality of his work, but because he is a man It is doubtless true that, in very many cases, the man does his work better than the woman; but it is not less true that, in a majority of cases, the difference in price grows out of the difference in sex So in the school A male teacher receives $1,000 [illegible] not because his moral influence is better, [illegible] because the pupils learn more, but [illegible] he is a man. A woman teaches a school, and receives $400, not because [illegible] majority of her moral influence in [illegible] because the pupils learn less, [illegible] is a woman Now, happily, [illegible] avoided in gardening A man [illegible] sells [illegible] is not obliged to put on "[illegible] raised by a man, ten cents," and "[illegible], raised by a woman, four cents," the article brings its market value This great advantage, and one affording a special recommendation to women of spirit Besides, gardening is an occupation requiring very little capital, and, except in the fancy departments, comparatively little training Near any one of the cities a woman can earn more upon a half acre of land, with four month's work than she can earn by sewing twelve months, saying nothing of the healthfulness of gardening, and the unhealthfulness of sewing —Our Girls, by Dio Lewis, A M, M D

PROPOSING BY TELEGRAPH —A young man in Illinois, smitten with a young woman in another town, telegraphed to her father his proposal. The operator carried the message to the residence of the gentleman whom he found yet in bed In reply to "What's wanting" the telegraph man informed Mr D— that Mr So-and so of Blandinville, wanted his daughter "Tell him he can have her," said the merchant The answer was accordingly telegraphed, and the first train brought the swain to his adored, and the two were made one in a twinkling The happy couple were off on a bridal tour by next express Somebody said they went by telegraph

A lady in Fort Wayne collected money for the soldiers' orphans, but finally concluded to invest the money in a bonnet She gave as a reason for her conduct "that the orphans, after they got used to it, could get along without bread, but she must have a new bonnet or starve."

Little Johnny was being catechized by his brother, who asked him what he was made of Johnny replied, "You and me and papa are made of dust, and mama and sister are made of men's ribs."

The regular Republican nominees in Cincinnati do not suit many prominent Republicans, and a fusion ticket will be run, with a fair prospect of success Joseph Kerby and Lewis Harris are mentioned for Mayor on this ticket.

Cheap Water Pipe.

"THE ASPHALTUM PRESSURE PIPE COMPANY," of San Francisco having purchased of the patentees the sole right to manufacture on this coast are now making an article at their works, at Alameda Point, that will supply the general want of a cheap and durable water pipe. The invention originated in France, where these pipes are extensively used, as well as in Germany, in fact, all over Europe, almost entirely superseding for all ordinary purposes the use of iron It is no new thing, having been in use twenty years

Its Durability.

Being imperishable and insensible to atmospheric influences or chemical properties of the earth, it never changes, and is consequently much more durable than iron, which corrodes, and in time leaks

It is a Non-Conductor,

And will not freeze except at a remarkably low temperature and even then its expansive power is greater than that of frozen water In warm weather it acts as a cooler for water passing through it

Neutrality to Acids and Alkalis.

This pipe is not affected by acids and alkalis nor is it affected by galvanic currents—consequently is invaluable in conducting telegraph wires under ground through tunnels and under bridges

Elasticity.

The elasticity of this pipe prevents its bursting from outward shocks or concussions The interior of the pipes being glazed, are as smooth as porcelain, and consequently are never clogged by adhering sediment.

Lightness

The mean weight of these pipes to iron is as one to five, which not only facilitates handling, but reduces the cost of transportation

Laying the Pipe

Is a simple matter—can be laid by any laboring man of ordinary intelligence, but the Company if required, will always furnish a competent person, free of expense to oversee the proper laying of the pipe. Contracts taken for any required length of pipe from water or mining companies, and warranted to stand according to contract

Pipe Under Pressure

Can be seen at the office of the Company. We are the only parties manufacturing this pipe on the Pacific Coast under this patent. All other offered is spurious and an infringement

Cheapness.

The cost when laid, including connections, is about one quarter that of lead and one-half that of iron

We manufacture this pipe in lengths of twelve feet, and ship it everywhere by all sorts of conveyances—No special care being required We manufacture it of any size from one to twelve inches.

Pressure.

We manufacture according to the pressure required from 1 to 600 pounds to the inch, and guarantee it to stand the pressure

Prices

1 inch,	10 cents per foot
2 inch,	20
3 inch,	30
4 inch,	40
5 inch,	50
6 inch,	60
8 inch,	$1 00
10 inch,	$1 25
12 inch	$1 50

For pipe capable of resisting a pressure of 150 lbs to the square inch

This pipe being made of a combination of paper, canvas, and asphaltum in lengths of twelve feet should not be confounded with moulded asphaltum pipe in lengths of four feet
